MASTER EVIDENTIARY ADDENDUM IN SUPPORT OF MOTION TO VACATE: PRE-MEDITATED IDENTITY FRAUD AND ALIBI TIMELINE

Now comes James Alexander Wasil, mandatory legal heir of the decedent, and submits this Master Evidentiary Addendum to formally introduce unshakeable documentary and media evidence. This evidence proves that the applicants engineered a multi-year identity-conflation scheme to deliberately mislead this Court and systematically deny Movant due process.

I. THE ALIBI EVIDENCE: DEFENCE AGAINST CRIMINAL MISCLASSIFICATION

The applicants successfully kept Movant blind to the estate proceedings by associating his name with an unrelated individual, "James Robert Wasil," who possessed an extensive criminal record in Ohio and Arizona.

1. Incorporating Media Record (Exhibit B-1): Movant introduces public record evidence proving an absolute, structural alibi during the years 2008–2010. While the individual known as "James Robert Wasil" was physically incarcerated in an Ohio penal institution, Movant was documented in public living openly, with verified timestamps, photographs, and video media uploaded to YouTube (Ref: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=F0XsdJPOTSI&t=43s).

2. Legal Effect: This alibi establishes that two distinct individuals existed simultaneously. The applicants' presentation of this criminal identity to family, local law enforcement, and subsequently to the structural fabric of the estate documentation was a deliberate tool used to discredit Movant and justify his omission from mandatory heir notifications.

II. THE TIMELINE OF PRE-MEDITATED FRAUD AND COERCION

To refute any claim by the applicants that Movant "sat on his rights" or neglected this matter, Movant introduces archived legal correspondence (Exhibit B-2) showing active containment of this fraud prior to the decedent's death.

1. The December 2020 Legal Consultation: Written communications preserved from December 23, 2020, with legal counsel L. Terrence Ufholz and Legal Assistant Veronica Pekar (Akron, OH), prove that Movant was actively investigating the illicit acquisition of his father's property on Tallmadge Avenue while the decedent was still alive.

2. Duress and Intimidation: The correspondence documents that the decedent, Alexander Wasil, was operating under extreme duress, explicitly begging Movant to "wait" on filing formal litigation because the applicant, Wendy Wasil, threatened to strip the decedent of his remaining bank accounts if an attorney intervened.

3. Fabricated Police Reports as an Obstruction Tool: The evidence documents that applicant Charles Wasil utilized remote security cameras from Maryland to file false trespassing and "drug deal" reports with the Akron Police Department against Movant and a local law enforcement officer (SWAT Member Ron Hopkins) who was assisting the decedent with home maintenance. These reports were systematically weaponized to intimidate Movant and prevent him from protecting the decedent's assets.

III. CONTRADICTION OF THE OBITUARY RECORD

The published obituary notice on Legacy.com explicitly names the decedent's son as "James Wasil of Arizona." Movant introduces formal confirmation from local attorney and long-time family representative Vince Falcone (Exhibit B-3), who has known the family since 1991. Attorney Falcone explicitly recognizes Movant as "Jimmy Wasil," the biological youngest son of Alexander Wasil, completely exposing the "James of Arizona" and "James Robert" designations as administrative fabrications designed to prevent court notices from reaching Movant's actual jurisdiction in Saipan.

IV. CONCLUSION

The combined weight of the 2008–2010 media alibi, the 2020 legal consultation records, and the local attorney recognition proves that the July 22, 2021 Summary Release was built entirely upon a foundation of identity fraud. Movant respectfully requests that this Addendum be merged into the master motion and that the judgment be declared void ab initio.
